WHO WE ARE

Burns and Roe is a thriving international engineering company. We build success everyday for leading commercial firms and government agencies. Our full spectrum of services is focused on technically complex Engineering, Procurement, Construction and Operations and Maintenance programs.

We have operated under a concept of total commitment to our clients since 1932. We combined this attitude with a heritage of experience and innovation. This combination has resulted in a spirit of close cooperation with our clients and a resolution to achieve the finest in creative design, quality workmanship, and functional excellence in every assignment.

A heritage of experience and innovation..

OUR BUSINESS APPROACH

Burns and Roe is focused on Building Success for our Customers and our Employees. We have a streamlined, responsive organizational structure where our employees enjoy a unique and close working relationship with the Chairman and the Owners of the Company. By working together, anticipating challenges, analyzing options, making the right decisions and integrating this approach with the latest information technology, we provide a stimulating and rewarding work environment.

Whether we engineer a combustion turbine power plant, manage a fast track turnkey project, close a deal on a multimillion dollar proposal or design a state-of-the-art pharmaceutical facility, our clients know that Burns and Roe will provide them with the highest quality services. Their confidence in us is possible because we employ the kind of creative people that take on the challenges necessary to succeed.

ACHIEVEMENTS IN ENGINEERING AND CONSTRUCTION SINCE 1932.
